

Refrigerator News

December 14, 2014

Wednesday, December 17

7:15 Choir Practice
and

YOUTH CHRISTMAS CAROLING

6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

You are invited to join in the singing!

Cookies and cocoa afterwards!

The Three Trees

According to legend, three olive tree, a palm tree and a fir tree. The olive tree offered its fruit to the newborn King, and the palm tree gave its dates.

nothing to give but worship, adoration and the angels branches. So the fir became the first Christmas tree.

The poor fir, having raised its boughs in hung stars on its became the first nothing to give but worship, adoration and the angels branches. So the fir became the first Christmas tree.

Thank You!

Thank You!

A big and huge THANK YOU to all who made last Sunday a great success! Over 600 invitations were passed out and the remaining 50 have been placed in food bags or passed out to food bag recipients. Thanks to Judy Steckly and her team for the pre-work on the invitations and thanks to all those who stayed and helped put last minute decorations on them. It was a great Sunday filled with food, fun and fellowship! Now let's pray that many will respond to those invitations and fill the pews in the coming Sundays.

Janet Peters - awaiting test results.

Michelle Beckman - healing from a fall.

Robin and Rosemary La Rue with continuing health problems.

Aletha Sills continuing therapy at Covington Meadows Healthcare.

Dick Robbins, who meets with an oncologist next week.

Linda Fultz asks for prayers for Howard Lininger, 84 yrs old, facing a very uncertain future.

Avon Scott whose family members are now recovering from various medical conditions.

Betty Dawson as she struggles to regain the ability to walk following a recent set-back.

Allen Shaw as he faces additional health problems.

