YOU CAN HELP

A huge thank you to Jack Steckly! Jack is handling the food pantry stocking and preparation of food bags until Aletha Sills is back. The pantry is low on just about everything so while you are shopping, please add some of these items to your grocery cart.

Cereal/pancake mix and syrup

Macaroni & Cheese

Cans of vegetables: green beans, corn, peas, etc.

Canned tuna or other meats

Soup and crackers

Spaghetti and sauce

Peanut butter

All donations are welcomed and a sincere thank you for your response!

SHANNON KIESS

OPEN HOUSE

Celebrate Shannon's graduation from Heritage High School!

Saturday, June 7 at the Kiess' home
11003 Hoagland Rd.
Hoagland, IN
3:00 - ??
(See Chris Kiess for directions.)

The youth group tackled the playground last week. They cleaned up, weeded, raked, spread new mulch and did an excellent job of face-lifting the area. Thanks so much!

Amy Kolb will be in the Fellowship Hall this Sunday to take your gourmet ready to bake cookie dough and caramel corn order. This is a fundraiser to help send our kids to Camp Mack this summer. Several delicious varieties are available and the price is only $12 a tub.

Helping each other...

There is no more important work in this world, no greater duty, than to help others to keep up their courage.

OUTRAGEOUS and COURAGEOUS

Chapter 4 "Learning Hospitality"

Hospitality... we're not as good as we think we are. Even if we are not prone to social gaffs, or are educated people, even if we're seasoned saints, and even if we say we know better. This challenging chapter highlights several practical suggestions on becoming more hospitable, for you and for the church. Here are some "thinking" and "talking" points.

What would a hospitality audit reveal about Lincolnshire?

How should we respond to guests in our worship service?

Do we have a "nice guy/gal" or "invisible greeter" as backup to the hospitality team?

How is it possible to "love someone before we know them?"

Hospitality can and should gradually become a way of life. Noticing people in church can help us begin to notice people everywhere, in our work zones, play areas or any other places that we frequent in our daily everyday life.

Church Garage Sale Friday, June 13th Saturday, June 14th

Items can be brought to the Fellowship Hall on Mondays through Thursday beginning May 6th. Please place items on the stage. Bake sales items such as pies, candy, cookies, cakes, etc. will also be sold. More details will appear in future Refrigerator News as the date grows nearer. In the meantime, start saving your spring cleaning items for the garage sale. And thank you to the garage sale committee members; Linda Robbins, Paula Sosenheimer and Darlene Smith for coordinating this event.
